Kelly Promises 4-Laning 80—IF

Gubernatorial candidate Scott Kelly shown with Hilton Bonard, local supporter, with the Copter he is using to "hit the high spots" in his campaigning.

Scott Kelly, candidate for Governor didn't use State Road No. 80 in coming to Belle Glade Wednesday morning for a speech before reported fifty-odd listeners.

He came by helicopter. In addition to his major campaign discussions about education, the Candidate displayed an interest in State Road No. 80 and its four-laning.

Mr. Kelly promised, if elected, "to four-lane State Road No. 80 if the figures he secured in Ft. Lauderdale are correct as to the cost—reportedly $9.2 million."

If the figures are incorrect, he says, other courses will be tried, and the most and fastest action out of the Road Board will be his aim.

It is reported that the candidate thinks that the local picture has been "unfair" to him.

Cancer Crusade In Full Swing In Glades Area

Chairman Ted A. Blausner, who is heading the American Cancer Crusade Drive in the Glades area, announced his committee has been completed and the drive is underway locally.

"We have more people working in the Glades area with each covering less territory individually than ever before," Mr. Blausner said.

Mr. Blausner came to the Glades in February of 1963 as assistant cashier for the Bank of Belle Glade and has been active in civic and church organizations.

Mike Collins, manager of G. A. C. Finance Co., is heading the drive in the business area, assisted by co-chairman Lee Cranford, Loan officer for Everglades Federal Savings Association. A concentrated drive of the business area will be made all next week.

Mrs. Clayton Waters is heading the drive in South Bay and Mrs. J. D. Hemphill, Jr., is chairman for the Lake Harbor area.

Here last week to get workers in the Glades area organized was Mrs. Goodwin, who heads the Palm Beach County Society. She announced that the County raised $175,000 during the year.

Buddies To The End Are Homer and Chuck

A night on the town proved more than two daring young men of fortune had bargained for, and landed both behind bars here last weekend.

Homer Garrett, 23, and Charles Cox, 20, both residents of the Central Motel, Belle Glade, started last Friday evening off quietly enough by making the rounds of several local night spots, but things got a little out of control early Saturday morning when they decided to break and enter with larceny in mind an establishment named Tillery's Store, S. R. 80, Belle Glade.

Homer had purchased a car — new to him, but second handed at that — and was apparently in desperate need of hard cash to bolster his $100.00 down payment. At any rate both hankered and thirsted for pockets that jingle, pangle, ping.

It really was not much of a problem, at that, for two such enterprising, energetic, strong young men, armed with tools, to force open the front door of Tillery's.

There, inside, they found a cash register, a combination cash register, and an adding machine which they quietly juggled to the new-

Unidentified Male Negro's Body Removed From Canal

Identity of a Negro male, pulled from the Hillsboro Canal bordering Palm Beach Road near 3rd Street, was undetermined at The Herald's press time Wednesday.

City Police were first notified by Muriel Ashley, who reported at 3:18 Wednesday afternoon that she had seen a body floating in the canal. Chief Goodlett, Sgt. Cordell and Officers Thorp, Butler and Griffin were at the scene and removed the body from the water. Believed to be in his early 40s, the victim was taken to Taylor Funeral Home.

Finger prints were taken and the police were searching their records for identity at last reports.

Somewhere on Brown's Farm Road they stopped for a while, just long enough for refreshments and for one of them to smash open the cash registers which they threw, less approximately $125.00, into the handy canal.

One of them claims to have been sleeping while this commotion was quietly going on.

This sudden wealth was not quite up to expectations and as they cruised past Stanley's Restaurant on S. R. 715, it offered a tempting prize, they agreed.

There a juke box obligingly surrendered $5.00, a cigarette machine coughed up $15.00 more or less, and an adding machine which they quietly juggled to the new-

D. G. Brewer Pays Official Visit To Lions

Paying his official annual visit to Belle Glades Lions Club didn't come easy for District Governor J. B. Brewer this year, but he addressed the group on Wednesday after fouling up on two previous Wednesdays.

Scheduled originally to be here April 6, one of Belle Glades' roaring Lions failed to roar in the Governor's direction and he was not informed that the Wednesday meeting had been changed to a Saturday night fish fry. The following week, the D. G. or District 35 reported, he was in jail.

As a juror, even so he was not allowed to phone and report he could not attend.

His talk Wednesday to the group centered around his experience as a jurorman, which he said had taught him well that it behooves each of us to forego circumstantial evidence in forming opinions, that we should take time to weigh evidence before speaking detrimentally about anyone.

He reported that the District Meeting held here last Sunday was the best he'd ever attended and attributed the large turnout to Belle Glades' "unexcelled hospitality."

President Richard Hodges announced that all reservations for Ladies Night, Saturday, May 7, must be made with H. V. Draz by noon Wednesday, April 27. Again the group will enjoy a three hour trip aboard the Peddlewheel Chorus, leaving dock at 7:30. A steak dinner will be served followed by dancing. This event last year was greatly enjoyed by those attending.

Baseball Ass'n. To Meet Apr. 21

A meeting of Glades Youth Baseball Association will be held Thursday, April 21, 8 p. m., at the Civic Center.

It is very important that all parents and interested adults attend this meeting.

Attend Annual Science Meeting

Dr. D. W. Beardsley, animal nutritionist, Dr. C. E. Haines, assistant animal husbandman and R. W. Kidder, animal husbandman, of Everglades Experiment Station are attending an annual meeting of animal science workers in Tallahassee, April 21-22, and will go on to the Experiment Station at Quincy.

Tammy Branch, P'kee Miss PBC of 1966

Miss Tammy Branch (Tammy) Branch, P'kekee High School Senior, was named Miss Palm Beach County of 1966 in impressive ceremonies at the Palm Beach Junior College Auditorium Monday evening, April 18th. This is the second time in

Glades Singers To Make First Appearances

The Community Chorus, composed of Glades Singers, will present their first concert next week with their initial appearance at Clewiston High School auditorium at 8 p. m. Monday night, April 25, and in Belle Glade Tuesday night, the 26th of April, 8 p. m. at the High School auditorium.

Organized in January, the group composed of 13 women and 9 men, is directed by Fred Stevens. Mrs. Karen Corbin is the accompanist. Beginning with small gatherings of people who like to sing, the chorus has grown to a present 22-member group.

Dr. L. G. Vaughan, Clewiston, Kenneth Lutz, Belle Glade, and Robert O. Lampi, Pahokee, were the principal organizers. Admission for next week's events will be 75c for students and $1.50 for adults. Proceeds will go to buy music, pay hall rent and other miscellaneous expenses.

Lions Eye Bank Sub-station Activated In Belle Glade

Belle Glade Lions Club was host for the largest turnout ever recorded at a District meeting Sunday, when 320 Lions and families gathered at our Martin District Governor Wm. Brewer of Ft. Pierce presided over the morning business session, after which Bert Ward and his Food Committee served a fish fry and Glades vegetables. Enjoyment of the feast was expressed by the visitors.

At 2:00 PM delegates gathered in the Country Club Assembly Room where organizational plans were made for an Eye Bank Sub-station in Belle Glade. With President Dick Hodges presiding, Erik Erickson, President of the Florida Lions Eye Bank, Inc., outlined the miracle work being done through this organization.

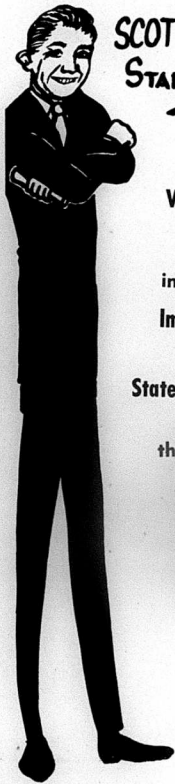

Dr. D. A. Fieles, optometrist and Vice President of Belle Glade Lions, organized the local Eye Bank Sub-station, which is the second established in the State. Dr. Manuel L. Soto is the surgeon who will do the enucleations (removal) from the donors.

ROADS

Candidate Scott Kelly fought the ONLY planned program for general highway improvement to give the GLADES four-lane traffic routes — US 441 and SR No. 80 east, and US 27 south.

Candidate Kelly has a right to oppose any state-wide project.

Normally, opposition to a substantial proposal affecting so many folks over the entire state has the consideration to offer a substitute, whether its practical or not.

Mr. Kelly did not offer a counter proposal, when he whooped and hollered around the state opposing the Road Bond Plan. Nor have we been informed of any counter proposal for state-wide road improvement, by him.

We have heard of his proposal to make US 41 first priority on state road funds, but nothing to make it easier for visitors to reach the southeast coast of Florida over improved through highways.

Because he had served on the Roadways Committee in the Legislature the candidate offered his experienced opinion that the Road Bond Issue was a "Boondoggle." A majority of the Senate and House members saw the proposal favorably and so voted. Everybody was "out of step but Scott!"

Yes, SCOTT KELLY STANDS TALL — as not good for the Glades!

It's possible that his "overboard" attitude and promises to the school faction may not find the support it deserves from the next legislature which remembers his disregard for THEIR opinions on roads.

TIME'S AWASTIN'

The Glades has historically been represented in Tallahassee by one of its own citizens, and now in its agricultural and economic growth with proportionate increase in population, more reasons enhance our claim to ONE out of seven to be sent to legislate for Palm Beach County.

The Glades is almost as large as the smallest in area of these United States — Rhode Island.

The Glades is larger in area than most Florida Counties; its population is larger than some 30-odd counties in the state; its economic contribution is greater than near 40 of Florida's counties — we need representation who KNOWS our needs and will fight for them.

Its economic contribution to the County, State and Nation indicated in its annual more-than-a-100-million dollar agricultural production in table vegetables, sugar and beef, by nationally recognized leaders in each field. Variety and diversification of agricultural production lend stability; modern mechanized farming finds the Glades "leading the pack."

There will be a void in accomplishment for a while, no matter who succeeds Representative Roberts, and it behooves Glades folks to SELECT and INDICATE their choice of the two candidates offering from the Glades.

Our friends on the coast who feel that we are entitled to ONE House seat await selection in order to support us — and there are many with that thought.

Do we want to kill our chances for continued representation OF the Glades, BY a Glades citizen?

Let's get down to serious consideration, and, however burdensome, make the decision for our own good! —Belle Glade Herald Editorial—Apr. 21, 1966

Uncle Dan From Doofie Says:

DEAR MISTER EDITOR:

I see by the papers where them Russians has come out with a new five-year plan for "economic development." Amongst the things they was promising the Russian people by 1971 was color TV sets, stretch socks, and a "adequate supply of baby foods."

This story was wrote from Moscow by a reporter named Vincent Burke and he said they didn't make no perdiction about the housing shortage, about 8 milles of six and eight living in two-room apartments in the cities, and two whole families living together in 3-room houses out in the rural parts of the country.

I bring this matter up at the country store Saturday night and Ed Doofie was of the opinion them Russians was always putting the plan in front of the mule, like encouraging the baby business after they git 'em space to live.

Farthermore, claimed Ed, them five-year plans in Russia was all hot air, said it made him recollect when ole Khrushy was over here that time beating his shoes on the United Nations table. He was bragging to reporters you could buy a can of American beer in Moscow for 10 cent in American money. The only trouble, allowed Ed, was they didn't have no American beer and so American money.

Zeke Grubb announced he aimed to write his Congressional and see if we could git a five-year plan out our way. Zeke reported he ain't never saw a color TV set and all he knows about stretch socks was when his old lady darned his two pair and added a half-inch patch to the heels. Wimmen folks, claimed Zeke, invented stretch socks back during the depression, one patch and a half a inch to the sock.

Clem Webster reported, gitting away from the Russians and back to the wimmen folks, he had saw when the Census Bureau had give out the figures that in 1965 they was 8,000 marriage licenses issued that wasn't never used. He was wondering if out of that 8,000 they was more men or wimmen that had second thoughts about the matter.

The fellers was about even divided on this question. Ed guessed 7,000 of them was men. He claimed a woman would put on a bathing suit and never go near the water but when she got that wedding dress ready she meant business. On account of my old lady might see this piece, I give the fellers the diplomat approach of Dean Rusk and guessed it half and half and fifty-fifty.

They ain't no way of finding out who backed out, but it is a sad story, Mister Editor, fer love and matrimony when 8,000 couples failed to git in the finals.

Yours truly,
Uncle Dan

GRASSROOTS OPINION

WALTHAM, MASS., NEWS-TRIBUNE: "I think about the little chap who delivers your newspaper every day... Doing the route is a personal sacrifice for a lad who has to meet an obligation while his pals go to the... neighborhood playground for a spell of fun... Those dollars he earns give him opportunity to pay part of his own way, to establish a measure of independent status that builds confidence. More than this, the newboy becomes a 'little merchant.' He isn't an employee of the newspaper, but an independent contractor purchasing a product and turning it over to a customer for a profit."

PORT GIBSON, MISS., REVEILLE: "Of the freedoms left — as we meekly bow before the onslaught of almost complete government domination — the right for a person to earn a living without paying dues to a labor union is certainly one of the fundamental rights."

ODESSA, TEXAS, AMERICAN: "The best-kept secret in America today is that people would rather work hard for something they believe in than enjoy a pampered idleness." That is a quotation from John W. Gardner, the new Secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

and Welfare... Mr. Gardner appears to be quite an individual... it is amazing that a man like he would get himself tied up with the $10 billion boondoggle that is HEW and which exerts cradle to grave control over the lives of the people... Good men in political office cannot make a falsely conceived idea good. And every phase of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare is falsely conceived on the idea that people can't and won't take care of their own well-being."

ROCHESTER, N. H., COURIER: "Retraining of workers whose skills are no longer needed is a fine thing. Education for the children of poor families is also needed. Federal aid, if accompanied by complete local freedom is acceptable. When it comes to the point of having to guarantee every family an annual income, then something has happened to this great nation."

Health Spending Increases, Physicians' Share Declines

CHICAGO—Americans are increasing spending for health care. But they still spend more for tobacco than for hospital care, and more for cosmetics and haircuts than for doctor bills, reports The AMA News, published by the American Medical Association.

Spending for health care totaled $23.2 billion in 1964, according to figures of the U.S. Department of Commerce. That's an increase of 7.8 per cent from the $23.4 billion spent in 1963.

Hospitals receive the largest share of health-care spending—about 30 cents of every dollar. The total spent for hospital care in 1964 was $7.6 billion. This compares with $7.8 billion spent on tobacco products. Other portions of the health-care dollar are divided among drugs, 17 cents; dentists, 10 cents; health insurance, 7 cents; appliances, 4 cents, and miscellaneous expenses, 5 cents.

The remaining 27 cents goes to physicians. This percentage has declined slightly over the years. Twenty years ago, physicians received about 28 cents of every dollar spent on health care.

Expenditures for physicians' services totaled $6.8 billion in 1964, compared to $7 billion in 1963, on personal items such as cosmetics, haircuts, and toiletries.

This was the distribution of the health-care dollar 10 years earlier: hospitals, 24 cents; physicians, 28 cents; drugs, 18 cents; dentists, 12 cents; health insurance, 8 cents; appliances, 5 cents, and the other services, 5 cents.

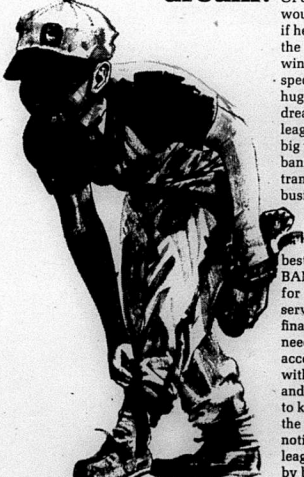

The Department of Commerce reported these expenditures for health care in 1964: Hospitals, $7.6 billion, up 12.5 per cent over 1963; physicians, $6.8 billion, up 5.5 per cent over 1963; drugs, $4.4 billion, up 5.2 per cent; dentists, $2.4 billion, up 5.8 per cent; health insurance, $1.8 billion, up 6.3 per cent; appliances, $1.1 billion, up 9.7 per cent, and other services, $1.2 billion, up 6.9 per cent over 1963.

STRONG CHURCHES

Make STRONG COMMUNITIES

First Church Of Christ Scientist

The necessity for continuing spiritual growth to realize eternal life is a central theme of this Sunday's service at all Christian Science churches. Subject of the Bible Lesson is "Probation After Death." The Golden Text is from James: "Let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing."

Readings to be presented along with the Bible include these lines from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Individuals are consistent who, watching and praying, can 'run, not be weary... walk, and not faint,' who gain good rapidly and hold their position, or attain slowly & yield not to discouragement. God requires perfection, but not until the battle between Spirit and flesh is fought & the victory won."

Goals Of VISTA Workers Told To Altar Society

Mrs. Ava Murphy and Miss Bernadine Weston, VISTA volunteers in service to America's workers with migrant families in Belle Glade, were guest speakers at St. Philip's Altar Society meeting Tuesday evening in the parish hall.

Mrs. Murphy who volunteered for 1 year, has been in the area since last August. Miss Weston's year will be up in June.

It is obvious that both ladies are dedicated in their work.

Mrs. Murphy stated that she requested to work with migrant children because of a deep concern about the waste of human resources that is the result of their mobility and restlessness.

The long range goal of these workers, acting as catalyst between the community and the migrant, is to increase permanently the abilities of individuals to solve their own problems and to provide stimulation and incentive for urban and rural communities to create their own community action program.

Although an accurate census is almost impossible, there are 10-20 thousand migrants in Florida each year. Thousands of these come to Belle Glade.

A migratory population of this size affords very real problems to the community. We, as responsible members of the community, should exert more effort to understand the migrant's problems, so that they and their children will be accepted, not only in the community but as PART of it.

At the conclusion of the talks, much interest was shown through questions & answers.

Hostesses for the meeting were Mrs. Fred Yoochuck and Mrs. J. G. Keener.

Karen Harris Is Rainbow "Girl Of The Year"

For outstanding service in Order of Rainbow assembly No. 1, Miss Karen Harris was presented a certificate for the "Girl of the Year" from the Grand Masonic Lodge, by Mrs. Jo Asprey, motor advisor.

Karen a senior at Belle Glade High School is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Junius T. Harris.

At a surprise pot luck supper, Dr. Robert Allen, Jr., was honored on his birthday and presented a gold key chain with his initials inscribed.

The group also completed plans for the Rainbow Coronation dance at the civic center on April 23 from 8 to 12 p. m. The dance will be semi-formal and the rainbow queen will be crowned.

The dance will be open to Teen Town members only. Chaperones will be Mr. and Mrs. Donald Asprey, Mr. and Mrs. Elgie Johnson. Contestants' parents are cordially invited to attend.

It was announced initiation of Melinda Chaney and Suzanne Wilkinson will take place the next meeting. It was also announced that at Grand Assembly in Jacksonville in June, Susie Winterrowd will be Grand Choir member and Linda McDonald will be Grand Page.

Is Satan Dead?

By Lewis Llewellyn

Is the Devil dead? Since a few professions of theology have precipitated such widespread discussions by stating that God is dead, perhaps we should look into the possibility of proclaiming as a doctrine that Satan, also, is now deceased.

Unfortunately, the facts do not support this theory any better than they do the other one.

If Satan were dead, who would be the driving force behind the nine percent increase in crime in the western states last year?

If Satan were dead, who would murder, robbery, immorality, and juvenile delinquency be going up in this country, year after year?

No, the Bible tells us that "the Devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour."

WHAT DOES HE LOOK LIKE?

Does Satan always appear in the familiar form of a man with horns and a pitch fork?

More often, he appears in the disguise of a woman of the world, enticing an unwary man into sin—or of a handsome young man, attempting to persuade a girl to commit an act of which she will forever be ashamed.

Sometimes he is the one who whispers to a teenager that it is all right to do a little shop-lifting because "everybody's doing it."

Sometimes he is the one who leads a businessman to file a fraudulent income tax return because "taxes are too high. I have to cut corners, even if it isn't exactly legal."

Surely he is the one who is promoting the "nude party" vogue among certain students at some of the well-known universities of the nation.

SATAN NOT DEAD YET

All the signs indicate that Satan is far from dead. On the contrary, his influence is felt in all segments of our society.

He may even speak thru false teachers in Christian institutions, as the Bible warns us in these words: "There were false prophets also among the people, even as there shall be false teachers among you, who privately shall bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them."

And many shall follow their pernicious ways.

However, the Bible tells us that there will come a time when Satan and those who follow him "shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone, which is the second death."

Then Satan will be dead.

A Good Mind

"Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus." — Philippians 2:5

Have you ever given thought to the expression which points out that "what you think you are?"

Think happy thoughts and your attitude toward life is certain to be brighter and cheerful. Look for gloom and you will find it.

It follows that our life becomes enriched when we turn our thoughts to God, when we keep in mind the high example of the dedicated life of Christ upon earth.

Keep God in your life, every day.

The Great Sphinx of Giza And Kheops Pyramid

That giant of the Pyramids of Giza, the Kheops or Khufu, is known to be at least 5,000 years old and is possibly 6,000. It consists of approximately 2,300,000 blocks, each weighing two and a-half tons. A low, narrow, sloping corridor goes half-way up the structure to the King's chamber. If the visitor is up to the climb, he will be disappointed to find nothing there but an empty, lidless sarcophagus. What a stifling experience it is to meet fifty visitors going in the opposite direction! SOMEONE has to stand aside, holding securely to the railing to let the others pass.

When filled with water, those (lagoon-rigged) feluccas with their huge triangular sails and squat bottoms seem to be slowly sinking into the Nile.

Shepherd's Hotel believes if sling-shaped beds were good enough for King Tut, they are good enough for tourists. I'm finally unknit but my skin has yet to recuperate from those scratchy, Farouk-sized beds.

One of those mummies, over 3,000 years old, looks about as young as some of those folks over in St. Pete. Egyptians drive by the horn and go like some of your younger guests. If one lone man is walking on a country road and he's seen the car coming for a mile, that horn blasts away until the man has been passed and forgotten. In Cairo, that eternal (infernal) sista brings about two extra traffic jams daily.

Those ubiquitous shoe-shine men (whom you need every five minutes) tap a bell when it is time for the other foot to be put on the box. I noticed with apprehension that the brush for the shoes is also used for dusting the bottoms of the trousers.

Thousands of years ago, many of the blind were taught to be musicians, and there were quite a few aspirin makers.

Arabs must make the world's best top sergeants.

My Favorite Ruin?

By Jean Roemer

Having completed a hit and run excursion to Egypt and Greece, I should make this a quickie, hitting you with a FEW items. But, alas! If two words will do it, I always use three, so this is a crew leisurely consume lunch and then "Steppin' Fetchin'" back to the aircraft.

Thanks heavens it was dark and we were in it. Over Cairo and a sandstorm. Bert said, "Our plane seems to be holding." Nearby the wreckage and thirty-odd bodies of a Miami plane crash were being cleared away. (This was the line we had to take three days later.)

When Bert asked a guide if most Moslems had four wives, he answered, "No, one. But two wives a husband needs. One to take care of the children, and one to take care of the upper and lower. Upper Egypt is the southern part; lower Egypt is the northern part. Ouch! Egyptian oranges are better than Florida oranges and they can be peeled EASILY into sections. But that bread dough must have been made back when some of those mummies were alive.

Lock your gold fillings! For an American dollar you can often get double or triple value, but it is illegal to spend them.

The Egyptian is the super salesman of the world, and he always wants his "teep" Bert says he knows from where cometh the word GYP.

Religious freedom? Doubtful. Our escort offered, "Mr. Nasser says we are not Moslems, not Jews, not Copts (Christians). We are Egyptians."

"They" say Cleo did not do herself in with that asp, but took poison. Death by snakebite is too unpredictable, and Cleo was a smart girl.

Donkeys versus camels? The donkey wins by a mile. He rides like a Cadillac while the dromedary does his best to disjunct you, that is, if you're able to mount him. When he arises, there are two monstrous lurches, and if your feet don't connect with the stirrups, a nice sandbath awaits you.

When a donkey brays, I smile, but when a camel growls? snorts? I'm convinced he is just as furious as his master usually sounds. "Yandee Doodle" was my camel. One camel went flying, by his posterior covered with a blanket reading T W A!

AFTER you've snapped those pictures, the driver demands that "teep" just for appearing in the pictures with you! (Next Week - Greece)

Dampness

You can fight off dampness in the house by heating the house for a short time. Then open the doors and windows to let the moist air out. An exhaust fan will help force it out.

1st Year Students—

Immunization And Age Proof Necessary

Children starting to school this fall MUST have birth certificates; and they SHOULD be vaccinated against the common childhood diseases.

The State Board of Health says a birth certificate can be obtained more quickly now before the last-minute rush. The certificate is necessary without it the child could lose an entire year at school. If the child was born in another state, application must be made to officials of that state.

Some counties hold early pre-school registration — some starting soon. Certificates — necessary to complete this work — can be obtained from most county health departments; or they may be obtained from board headquarters in Jacksonville.

The application or letter must include the full name of the child; the full name of the father; the full M.A.D.E.N. name of the mother; the day, month, year, city and county of birth; whether the child is male or female; and the child's race. The original birth certificate number should be included if possible. A fee of $1 must accompany the request.

Board officials also said that by the time an infant is three months old he should begin immunization series against whooping cough, polio; smallpox; diphtheria, and tetanus (lockjaw). He should have measles vaccine between nine and 12 months of age. Boosters for the diseases to the child throughout his life into adulthood.

Green Gold
Australian crocodiles are called "green gold" because of the value of their hides. Big game hunters in tropical northern Australia have bagged crocs weighing over a ton and measuring up to 22 feet. At $2 an inch for quality hides, such a trophy would be wanted on a wall.

Field Trips Highlight Kindergarten Program

Trips in and about the community have been a highlight of the kindergarten program for the four and five year olds of the Community Methodist Church. This past week the group of 25 children took an excursion to the Wedgworth Farms. The tour was arranged by Mrs. Ruth Wedgworth to include pasture land where the children saw cattle and also celery harvesting and the flooding of the fields for future celery planting, corn fields, the Glades Sugar House and into the produce packing house district.

On Friday of this week the Kindergarten will visit the home of Miss Jessie Freeling, noted musician & artist in the community. Mrs. Curtis Thompson, Jr., director of the Kindergarten music program planned this trip as an enrichment in music for the children.

All the trips this year have been correlated with weekly units of study. In the early fall during Health Week, they visited the dental office of Dr. M. J. Luce. They walked to Kilgore Seed Store to purchase seeds for their own school garden. During the study of the Community Helpers, the group toured the B & B Supermarket and made a small purchase. A trip to the Fire Station and to Mahon's Bakery completed this study.

During Easter week the group visited the Presbyterian Church and were guests of the Baptist Kindergarten to view the hatching of chicks. In May the kindergarten will complete their trip by visiting the elementary school they will attend in the fall.

Pictures taken of all of these tours and other daily activities, including the music and Spanish program will be shown to Kindergarten parents and others interested in the Kindergarten on Wednesday.

Annual Convention Miami DCCW To Meet At Palm Beach Towers

Catholic Women and their friends in the 16 counties which comprise the Diocese of Miami have been invited to attend the 8th Annual Convention of the Miami Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, which will be held at the Palm Beach Towers Hotel, Palm Beach, April 24-26. The Towers will be headquarters for the three day sessions expected to attract hundreds of women from the 106 affiliated with the Miami DCCW.

Kindergarten Children Take Ride On Bus

Forty-two kindergarten children at the First Baptist Church Kindergarten took a trip on a Trailways bus Wednesday morning.

They made the trip to South Bay at 10:00 a. m. and enjoy a well over in the park with refreshments. They returned at 11:00. This is an experience they will remember long after they have finished their unit of study on transportation.

Norman Purchases Station

Lynn Norman who has operated a service station in Pahokee for three years has purchased the business formerly known as Dean's Standard Service, and will operate it under the name of Norman's Standard Service at the northwest corner of South Main and Avenue E.

Mr. Lynn and family are residents of Belle Glade. The new owner and operator is offering the public services normally found in a modern station, but also pick-up and delivery service to those who find it impractical to get to the station at the proper times.

Mr. Walter Allen, Art instructor, with his jaunty blue beret, was the man of the hour, producing his sketches cleverly and quickly for those who wished to see themselves as others see them! His fees helped to strengthen the ever-growing fund for air-conditioning at the school.

During the business meeting, Mrs. Roger Cunningham, Chairman of Room Mothers, gave an itemized report of the recent Bazaar and Spaghetti Supper along with other related money-makers on April 16th at the school. "Success" has been the key word used over and over to describe all projects undertaken by the room mothers and other interested parents of the school, as well as the entire faculty, and Mrs. Cunningham's report spoke for itself in this connection. Air-conditioning will become a reality shortly in Gove Elementary!

Plans are underway for the procuring of playground equipment for the school, as funds are in the PTA treasury and have been marked for this purpose. President W. V. Cunningham, Jr., and his co-workers are working toward such procurement in the very near future.

The Devotional was presented by Monsignor Jose M. Juaristi, a native of Spain, and the present administrator of St. Philip Benizi of Belle Glade. He spoke on the association between parents and teachers and the students, and the role of the family.

Honorees for the meeting were Mrs. Curtis Thompson, Jr., Mrs. Bernice Lee, and Mrs. Ray Kent. Jr. Homemade cookies and punch were served.

The enthusiasm shown by the attendance of the parents at this first annual Art show gives one the feeling this will become a permanent part of the program of the Gove PTA.

A fourth-grade room with Instructor Capua proved to be the winner of the room count of parents, and was awarded the prize money. Instructors Capua and Denlinger have proven they have the "most" in relation to parents' present through.

Jean C. Rainbow Family To Attend Witness Assembly

Attending conventions is a family affair for the Jean C. Rainbow family of 223 N. W. Ave. '1. The Rainbows; Jean, his wife Helen and their two young daughters leave next weekend for a Circuit Assembly of Jehovah's Witnesses in Fort Myers.

Commenting on the secret to family success Jean said, "We believe in doing things together. We go to conventions together, attend Bible studies together and go to our Kingdom Hall meetings together." With regard to children attending the conventions, Rainbow said, "There is something of value for all members of the family at these gatherings. The meetings Myers, April 29 through are especially designed with May 1st.

the family unit in mind. Many times our children hear things from the Bible which they do not understand and this gives us the opportunity to sit down and explain it to them."

Let's Go Boating!

Touch-up painting gives "new look" to your outdoor motor. A little touch-up paint can give your outdoor motor a brand new look. Spray paint in pressurized cans makes this a simple task, one that even the youngsters can handle with ease. A wide selection of colors, one of which will match the original surface paint, is available from your marine dealer.

Whether your outboard has just a few scratches or shows the signs of many seasons' wear, it's a good project to add to your Spring tune-up list. Besides improving the appearance of the engine, it will prevent rapid deterioration.

The Everette-News Service recommends the following step-by-step procedure for a professional job:

- (1) Sand the surface that's to be painted with No. 320 or equivalent grit sandpaper. Remove all corrosion, grime, oil and grease. It's not as easy to sand the surface to have metal, but merely break the glaze of remaining paint. Use a cloth to wipe off any sanding dust.
- (2) Ordinarily it isn't necessary to apply zinc chromate primer for simple touch-up work. However, this is recommended when doing a complete re-paint or when applying paint to bare metal.
- (3) Use masking tape to cover up chrome-plating, decals or fittings. When applying the paint hold the can about 6 to 8 inches away and move it from side to side. Apply it in light coats so the paint will not run. Have a rag handy in case you make a mistake. If you act quickly, you can wipe off the excess and start over again. If this is the first time at the controls of a spray paint, it's wise to practice before tackling the real thing.

Proven experience in a job it takes a lifetime to learn

Back in the days when automation was something you only read about in science fiction, Broward Williams worked with the State Treasurer's office to convert Florida's pen and ink bookkeeping to a data processing system. That's how Florida became one of the first states to use automation to keep track of revenues and statistics. As the state grew, so did the state's capability in record keeping. Today it enables our State Treasurer to keep up with traffic accident records, insurance statistics and state bookkeeping. In voting to keep Broward Williams State Treasurer you will be voting to keep in office a man who has also kept pace with Florida's growth. His many years in the fields of insurance and State finance qualify him to continue to represent you completely. When you vote to keep Broward Williams your State Treasurer you will be voting to keep in office a man with proven experience in a job it takes a lifetime to learn.

Art News

Students in commercial classes have begun to concentrate more seriously on design and composition. They have just completed a series of cartoon projects with two aims in mind; (1) To gain experience in composing a picture along with illustrating original humorous ideas; (2) To gain further experience in using wash techniques in the designs of the composition.

The next design project will be rug making using burlap and yarn. Some rugs have already been made by more advanced students. Some beautiful rugs can be seen in Mr. Garretts room in P-8.

Preparations are being made now for the Annual Art Exhibit to be held Monday, May 23.

Your School Campus

People living near a school often judge it by the way the grounds and classrooms are kept. Students have a responsibility to do their share in keeping the campus and classrooms neat and attractive. These suggestions will help you to keep the Lake Shore School neat and attractive.

1. Do your part to help in the campaign to improve the grounds and the classrooms.
2. Pick up any papers or trash that you find anywhere around the school, in the cafeteria, gym, corridors, etc.
3. Do not throw papers or trash around the school campus.
4. Put all trash and papers in the waste basket in the classrooms or in the receptacles placed around the campus.
5. Don't cut across the grass and flower beds.
6. Believe as a good school citizen and do not destroy school property.

"Quotations Anyone?"

Hi, this is Johnny Ellison, author of "Quotations Anyone?" This week I have a new list of quotations and a new list of quotations in the right space at the left of the quotations.

2. Days: "One day is worth two tomorrow."
3. Defense: "To arms, to arms the British are coming."
4. Peace: "I remain at odds of your common peace and liberty."

"Laugh Awhile"

A four-year-old lad in Mississippi was watching his father change the baby. When he over looked him spanking the tot's backside with tatum powder and hurried him into a diaper, the four-year-old reproved him sharply, and said, "Hey dad, did you forget to salt him."

A five-year-old lad entered a suburban school and found a three-year-old playing with his toys, and he said, "You don't know me, but I'm your grandmother on your father's side." With out looking up, the lad replied, "I'll tell you right now, you're on the wrong side."

One day at a suburban school the teacher asked the kids did they want to go to heaven, everyone raised his hand except a five-year-old, the teacher asked him why he didn't want to go to heaven, he replied without raising his hand, "Mother told me to come right home after school."

Dear Maggie, How long do you think a teenager should stay out on Prom Night? I know what my mother would give, but I would like to know side.

Dear Contemplating, Since parents differ in setting curfew, I can't say exactly how late a teenager should stay out. But I strongly suggest that you abide by the curfew that your parents have set.

STREET MANNERS

Most of the social forms which are supposed to insure proper behavior in the street and other public places are intended for men and especially, a man's behavior toward a woman in such places. Perhaps the fact that women have always been exempted from these rules accounts for their all too frequent inconsiderate behavior in public places. A woman seems to be guilty far more often than a man, of pushing and shoving in line, of glaring at a passer-by who has accidentally jostled her and of talking and laughing loudly in a public place. In most discussions on street manners, emphasis seems to be placed on man's tipping his hat at the proper time rather than on more fundamental and more flagrantly violated rules of good behavior for both sexes.

Unfortunately, such behavior is neither taught nor learned but seems to be inherent, part of a person's attitude toward the world in general.

Most women dislike a man's cagging his hand under her elbow and it's not usually of much assistance anyway. Men instead should extend their hand palm up. To women to assist her in getting out of a vehicle or whenever the going is precarious. A man opens and holds all doors for a woman, unless she beats him to the door. If she has reached the door first, having preceded him, she should then stand aside to let him open it and follow her through.

Whether or not a woman waits for a man to open a car door for her seems to depend on her mood and the occasion. Even if she does open the door she should probably wait for the man to help her.

These may not be all of the procedures or rules to show your good manners, but these are some of the things which are supposed to insure proper behavior in the street, and other places.

C&SF FCD's 66-67 Budget 1-3 Less than Current One

Tentatively adopting a budget for fiscal year commencing July 1, 1966 the Central & South Florida FCD indicated a reduction from the current budget of $24.89 million to $14.69 million, with the millage to be set by the time of official adoption.

Anticipated taxes for the coming year are $4.4 million a $200,000 drop from the current collections. Some $7.9 towards the coming budget are expected from General Funds.

One reason for the reduced budget is failure of anticipated appropriations. In construction, provision is made for $3 million for the new budget against $3.6 the past year.

Water levels in most lakes, rivers, and conservation areas within the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District remained above regulation stages during the past month, it is reported.

The FCD is pumping as much water as possible southward, said Ed Daily, Executive Director.

The following are water levels (above mean sea level), with departures from normal or regulation stages where available:

Pumping started February 22 and will continue until Lake Okechobee drops to a level of 12½ feet. The Lake stood at 15.1 feet April 1 or .85 of a foot above regulation stage and 39 of a foot below the March 1 level.

Water pumped southward through stations at the Palm Beach-Broward County line on the Miami Canal and North New River or Canal flows into FCD Conservation Areas 2 and 3, with substantial quantities being released through spillways at the Tamiami Trail into Everglades National Park south of Conservation Area 3.

The history of butter extends wide back into the history of mankind. Yet it was not until the mid-1800s that butter, prepared and packaged as we now recognize it, became a familiar sight in the marketplace. Prior to that time, butter had been a home-made product.

See and Buy
Being able to see such foods as cereals, sugar, and flour is not important to the consumer because these products are highly standardized and uniform. However, meat, vegetables, and fruits are among the foods that vary in quality. Packages for these products need to combine visibility with protection so shoppers can see what they buy.

Kill this pellitory weed in sugar cane. Use Atrazine. Here's how:

When you see pellitory weed starting to grow, apply Atrazine 80W herbicide, plus a little surfactant. You'll clean out infestations of this winter annual fast and effectively without hurting cane.

Atrazine is safe to sugar cane. It will not injure your crop when you apply it as directed on the label. And since it's non-volatile, there's no danger of drift to adjacent, sensitive crops.

Even though Atrazine has proved to control pellitory at any stage of growth, early treatment assures best results. With pellitory under control early, you grow more sugar cane per acre.

That's because Atrazine prevents pellitory from interfering with sugar cane tillering. Also, Atrazine helps make soil moisture and nutrients available for your cane, and not for pellitory weed.

So plan now to grow the maximum tonnage of sugar cane from each acre you plant this season. Just use Atrazine to control pellitory weed this winter.
